The screenshot displays the American Indian College Fund application interface. At the top, the logo features a stylized flame in red and white, with the text "AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE FUND" and "EDUCATION IS THE ANSWER" below it. The navigation bar includes "Homepage > [redacted] > Resume" with a "Draft" status indicator, and a "Welcome, [redacted]" message with a settings icon. The main heading is "Resume" with a dropdown arrow. On the right, there are three buttons: "Save Draft", "Mark Complete" (highlighted in yellow), and "Close". Below the heading, a paragraph states: "Click on the 'Mark Complete' button on the top right-hand side of the screen once you upload your resume and answer the internship question. You will then be rerouted to the main menu where you can submit your scholarship application by clicking on the 'Submit Application' button on the top right-hand side of the screen." A second paragraph reads: "Your resume is not a requirement to be considered for a scholarship. However, providing it will allow us to consider you for career development opportunities." The form area contains a "Resume Upload" section with a "+ Select a file" button and a help icon. Below this is the question "Are you interested in internship opportunities?" with radio buttons for "Yes" and "No". At the bottom, there is a "LinkedIn" section with an empty text input field.

12. Once all steps are complete, you'll then be able to Submit Application. Your application is not fully submitted until you click the green "Submit Application" button. Once you click "Submit Application" you will not be able to edit your submission
